

OLIVE NDUNGO

I am a Senior Management Staff of the Cameroon Civil Aviation Authority (CCAA) and currently the Chief of Service for Environment. Having a first Degree in Environmental Geography, Management and Land use Development.

Working with the CCAA since April 2003 to present, has enabled me acquire several professional experiences with numerous specialized trainings and various posts of responsibilities duly summarized as follows:

April 2020 to present – Nominated Environment Expert for the African Civil Aviation Commission (AFCAC)

12-14 May 2020 - Member of the AFCAC teleworking Environment Experts group meeting

8-19 June 2020 – Rapporteur of the Environment Sub-group of the AFCAC teleworking meeting on Policy Development for the Air Transport Sector in Africa

19 Jan 2018 to present – Nominated State Focal Point for the Carbon Offsetting and Reduction Scheme for International Aviation (CORSA)

2017 to present – Coordinator of the Technical Secretariat of the National Action Plan Team of States' Action plans on CO2 emissions Reduction from international aviation for the Cameroon Civil Aviation Authority (CCAA)

2 -6 December 2019 – Invitee at the First Steering Group Meeting of the Committee on Aviation Environmental Protection (CAEP) in Johannesburg, South Africa

2017 to January 2019 – Coordinator of the Committee in charge of supervising the works to be executed by the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO) and European Union (ICAO-EU) in view of the installation of the solar-at-gate pilot project at the Douala International airport

10th October 2019 - Coordinator of Committee meeting in charge of evaluating the level of implementation of the selected mitigation measures and the review of Cameroon's action plan for CO2 emissions reduction from international aviation

April 2012 – 2017 – Member of the Technical Secretariat of the National Action Plan Team of States' Action plans on CO2 emissions Reduction from international aviation for the CCAA

OLIVE NDUNGO

31 Oct – 01 Nov 2016 – Participation in the modification of the Regional Action Plans for CO2 emissions reduction from international aviation for the Economic Community of Central African States (ECASS) Sub-Region in Libreville, Gabon

24 March 2016 to present – Chief of Service for Environment at the Division of Air Transport (DTA) of the CCAA

Oct 2015 – present – Cameroon's Focal Point for States' Action Plans on CO2 emissions reduction and the Aviation Environmental System (AES)

24 June 2010 – July 2012 – Chief of Service for the Development of Air Transport at the Department of Air Transport and Regulation (DTAR) of the CCAA

June 2009 – 23 June 2010 – Coordinator of the Aeronautical Information Service and Cartography at the Department of Airport Operation (DEA) of the CCAA

26 Oct 2007 – June 2009 – Chief of Service of Airport Operation and Concessions at the Department of Studies, Projects and Airport Operation (DEPEA) of the CCAA

19 – 22 Oct 2008 – Member of the Sub-Commission of the World Bank Project for Air Transport in charge of analysing the tenders geared towards evaluating the Socio-Economic and Environmental impact resulting from the construction of a security fence around the Douala International airport